bundle of money and time using this incredible software and save your time in advance. You can have a complete control of your digital camera, DVD player, digital storage and game consoles. The King of England is turning 99 years old today, and a host of UK-related celebs were hard at work adding a few more digits to the royal tally. Both Prince Charles and Prince William have marked the occasion with a birthday video, with the latter stressing the importance of conservation as well as giving some impressive views of Stonehenge. Prince Charles, meanwhile, paid tribute to his father King George VI by highlighting his "simple, Scottish-born honesty". This clip was posted onto the princes' YouTube channel, which also includes other fun videos of Prince William and other members of the royal family. After the Prince's tribute, Harry and Meghan marked the Queen's birthday with a video of their own, which they also posted to social media. In it, the Duke of Sussex and the Duchess of Sussex said: "Happy Birthday, Ma'am. From one member of the royal family to another, we wish you a very happy birthday". Watch the Prince of Wales and Prince of Wales' tribute below: This invention relates to electronic circuits and, more particularly, to a gain modulator, in which the gain is controlled by a controllable capacitor, for use in
